Dear Sir.

On the 21st Oct- the Liberators were sent to Mr Spofford agreeably to his direction, but the pay for them ($115.00) did not reach me till ~~till~~ the 27th Ult- Justice requires that you should receive some compensation for your assistance and contribution towards the compliment required.

Please, therefore, accept the postal order for $15.00 herewith enclosed. If this should be thought less than it ought to be, please notify me thereof, & give me the pleasure of enlarging it.

On the day that I sent to Mr Spofford, I sent the spare numbers to you by express, & I hope you received them in due time.

Please acknowledge the receipt hereof – Highest regards to your father & family – with regret that I did not meet him & yourself on your visit to the mountains last Summer –

Yours truly
Edmund Carleton
